

Silver Birch

There are two types of Birch trees in our school.

This one is the Silver Birch. It has fine branches and small leaves, but we know it is a Silver Birch because its bark has a silver colour and often looks like it is peeling. Birch trees are very common in Ireland as they grow well in any type of weather.

